

technology

feed of recommended charities that could be scrolled thru accurate information concerning crisis around the world charities and topics can be followed by users charities can post to the feed users see Topic: There is no direct connection to fund emergency situations (like social media).

have a way to detect scams costs

it would have to be free have a way to make money because it's free building the website/app would need a way to have an income minimum donations for users to donate donation costs

accessibility

not everyone can access easy way to determine if there is a scam have an easy user interface for people who can't understand how to use the ap

24/7 customer support

have a tutorial

people who would have access to creating posts someone to verify if it's a real charity people live in different areas, so different currency options some people might try to promote bad causes everyone of all ages will be using